

ARTIST CAS CAMPBELL

Living and working in Brighton, Cas Campbell's work reflects on the role of the artist within the world, and the continuing evolution of faith. Working predominantly with spray paint and mixed media, Campbell's colourful abstract works show the possibility of a world without suffering, without picturing that world.

