

ARTIST: MAUDIE GUNZI

Professional book and paper conservator Maudie, has worked at major UK institutions including The Victoria & Albert Museum, The National Archives and the National Library of Scotland as well as conservation companies such as the National Conservation Service in London, alongside this work, she has always worked on a private basis as well. Situated on Worthing's seafront as part of the popular artist community, The Book Hut is Maudie's studio and allows her the space and time to complete conservation projects, as well as creating new bindings and holding workshops for interested individuals.
www.thebookhut.co.uk

